

I oppose taking a vote that leads to more media consolidation. Corporate media is what makes listening to FM radio counter-productive. The people should have a voice, and media consolidation runs directly counter to that ideal.